ADVANCED EXAMINATION INFORMATION

Where can I take the courses required?

You can take the courses at any BAR-certified school. To view a list of these schools, please visit BAR's website at www.bar.ca.gov, and click on "Industry Resources", under the heading "Technician Resources".

What is an Update Training Course?

Update Training are "Continuing Education" courses (not more than 20 hours in length) targeting recent changes or advancements affecting testing to the Smog Check program.

After I submit my Smog Check technician license application, how do I know if I am approved to take the exam?

Once your application is processed by BAR's Licensing Unit, BAR's exam contractor, Psychological Systems, Inc., (PSI) will mail you a candidate bulletin that states you can contact the PSI help desk to schedule your exam.

Are there study materials for the exam?

Study materials are included in the Candidate Bulletin that PSI will mail to you, or you can visit BAR's Web site at www.smogcheck.ca.gov to download the Candidate Bulletin.

What happens when I pass my examination?

You will receive a pass report card and then PSI will mail you a wall/badge license with your picture on it. If you are ready to start work, call your local BAR field office three to five days after your examination date to obtain an "Access Code".

What happens if I fail my examination?

You will receive a fail report card and must wait 14 days before you call PSI to reschedule another exam (no fee is required if the exam is scheduled within 90 days of the receipt of the first exam eligibility by PSI). If you fail a second time, you can submit either your failed report card with a $20 check or money order, or a new application with a $20 check or money order to BAR's Licensing Unit at:

Bureau of Automotive Repair
P.O. Box 989001
West Sacramento, CA 95798

What do I need to do to renew my Smog Check technician license?

You may receive a courtesy renewal notice* approximately 120 days prior to your expiration date. You must complete the renewal notice, sign it, and submit a $20 check or money order along with proof of successful completion of a BAR-certified update training course.

NOTE:

If you submit your renewal notice more than one year past your expiration date you will be required to re-take the examination.

*Please note: License renewal is the responsibility of the applicant. All certifications and continuing education must be current for license to be renewed.
